NORTHFIELD, MASS.

Fortnightly Study Meeting.

The last study meeting of the Fort-nightly was held in Alexander Memo-Anne Bohanon are with Mrs. L. H. Larial hall Monday afternoon, Mrs. T. R. zeile for the seminary vacation. ing April 24: Mrs. F. E. Howard, Fool party, Miss Sue Thompson, Mrs. F. B. Cald similar to the Fortnightly.

Mrs. N. P. Wood then took charge of the meeting and presented the subject of Scientific Discovery. Mrs. Randall gave a paper on Implements in Modern Warfare. Mrs. Waite followed with a reading on Home Science, describing the homes of the early settlers in contrast to those of today. Mrs. F. B. Clapp of East Ornage, N. J., the home of Thomas A. Edison, gave an entertaining account of the early vears of the great scientist from his birth in Milan, N. Y., to the present time. On account of lack of time Mrs. Wood's talk on The Mexican Situation was omitted.

A pleasing program of music was

A pleasing program of music was The Northfield Hotel company ex-they had made their home in East Northfield, where Mr. Woodard has been employed as one of the foremen at Northfield seminary. She was a devoted member of the Congregational church and for several years had been an indian.

Caxt Sunday evening the missionary cents for less. However, under nor mal freight conditions practically all the New York shipments are made over the North Merical Service. We pattison will give an illustrated lecture on The North American Indian.

The Unitarian society will hold an load shipments in 24 hours.

their sorrow.

The funeral was held in the Congregational chure yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. F. W. Fattison of sis while working outdoors Friday afternoon of Northfield, suffered a stroke of paralysis while working outdoors Friday afternoon. burial took place in the family lot in se the Vernon cemetery.

of George Leask of New York, a wholesale and peanuts for refreshments. commercial paper dealer.

$50,000. Until their deaths the various legatees will receive the interest of the ketball team.

Parent-Teacher Association.

C. E. Bailie, principal of the high mittees a story contest was participated. The committee on bylaws, of which E. F. Howard was chairman, gave a report. It was voted that all parents of children attending schools of North-school in the public schools of North-school in the public schools of North-school in the public schools of the association:

Monthly social. After reports of commonthly social story contest was participated and is working very satisfactorily, it is understood. The water in the lake has been installed and is working very satisfactorily, it is understood. The water in the lake has been installed and is working very satisfactorily, it is understood. The water in the lake has been installed and is working very satisfactorily, it is understood. The water in the lake has been installed and is working very satisfactorily, it is understood. The water in the lake has been installed and is working very satisfactorily. field are members of the association; that eight meetings should be held each year, beginning with September and holding one the third Friday evening. The Meeting Tuesday evening, the subject railroad a short distance north of the before the members being, Prepared railroad a short distance north of the association. The banks in the big cut on the before the members being, Prepared railroad a short distance north of the association. field are members of the association; port on officers to be voted on at the May meeting. Mrs. Kate Whittemore of Leicester, who is president of the Parent-Teacher association of that town, gave a helpful talk in connection with this kind of work. insting committee are F. H. Doolittle, Mrs. Frank Kendrick and C. E. Balllie. A social hour followed and refresh ments were served.

Esther Maynard and Donald Crane are ill with bronchitis.

Mrs. Charles E. Dickerson has been in Boston a few days.

Miss Minnie E. Lymnn is home from Orange for her spring vacation, Mr. and Mrs. Cornell returned Monday and opened their summer home. Jesse Lyman is ill in the home of his mother, Mrs. R. H. Woodbury. The bluebirds and robins have ar-

Miss Imogene Benedict of the semi-nary is with Mrs. G. T. Thompson a into the tenement vacated by Mrs. Welch of Quincy is a guest of Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Merrill plan to move this week to their new home on Birnam road.

Mrs. N. Fay Smith had charge of who has been having grip. the meeting in the Barber district. Ethel Smith is assisting Mrs. Brack Sunday afternoon.

few days in Orange with her daugh- Mrs. Edgar Brooks of Belchertown ter, Mrs. H. C. Gates.

Clement Pratt, grandson of Mrs. Viola Pratt, who died last week, is with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Merrill.

North Adams normal school ill with an an account of the work of federated clubs and told of the work of a Friday club, to which she belongs, which is similar to the Formightly.

Winfred W. Fry of Philadelphia, Mt. Hermon 1896, preached in Hermon Memorial chapel Sunday. The school closed at noon Tuesday for one week.

Our Animals, Lynford E. Tuttle, D. V. S., Grafton, member of advisory board; Cow Test Associations, W. P. Davis, Durham.

An excellent supper was served by ficinting. The Relief corps conducted ternoon, his left side being affected. Mr. a burial service in the church and the Tyler is a member of the board of assesas and a prominent Republican. The physicians think he will recover.

23, Northfield Schools evetually will remon through Northfield, East North Ward, first grammar, with $50 increase school duties in Laconia Saturday, af occupy the tenement vacanted by ceive 850,000. Mrs. Leask was the widow field and South Vernon and had candy in salary; Miss Clara Stearns, subwill receive $32,000; home and foreign club of the Congregational church of Chestnut Hill school. The spring va-

Twenty members of Mrs. N. Pay The Parent-Teacher association held Smith's class in the Congregational is being temporarily held up to a cerits second meeting in Alexander hall Sunday school met at Mrs. E. F. How- tain extent in anticipation of the Wednesday evening with a good num- and's Saturday afternoon for their spring freshet. All the flood gates, ber of enthusiastic members present, monthly social. After reports of com- however, can be opened and one of the Davis aruged that the farmer could do ning on to the tracks. W. A. Priest gave a humerou this. reading, Farming It. Seeds and bulbs were exchanged by some of the mem-lers. The overseer, Clifford Field, assisted by his sisters, Misses Hazel and Elvie Field, gave a short farce, The from Keene. Picked-Up Dinner. At the next meeting J. H. Putnam and J. D. Willard of in Greenfield, Mass. the Franklin county farm bureau will have charge of the program.

WEST NORTHFIELD, MASS.

Mrs. Adin French is improving. Dorothy Lambert is ill, also Wallac Cark's little son.

E. B. Buffum and Gordon were New York the last of the week.

Miss Ida Stratton was a guest of Marion Adams two days this week. Miss Mand Dutton of Athol visited rived, and they surely were never more her sister, Mrs. Homer Havercroft, last

Allie Johnson has moved his family

Mrs. Welch of Quincy is a government of Windham of Wind E. D. Wells is ill with the grip, Mrs. Willard is better, also Mr. Martin, Willard is better, also Mr.

unday afternoon.

Mrs. Ellen Stebbins is spending a to the house by the Brown farm. was a guest of Mrs. Hilliard last week Scott.

HINSDALE, N. H.

Successful Tarmers' Institute.

The state department of agriculture co-operating with Wantastiquet Grange and the Hinsdale Farmers' association Callender called the meeting to order and after the usual business Mrs. F. T. Pallam and Mrs. W. N. Coe were appointed chairmen of a committee to The West Northfield school will Wednesday. The farmers learned much both of interest and negligible for the property of the work with the executive committee in preparation for gentlemen's night, Friday of this week and Miss both of interest and profit and all compreparation for gentlemen's night, Friday evening, April 7. Miss Gertrude weeks. Ball was elected auditor and the fol-lowing nominating committee was ap-pointed to report at the annual meet-ing followed by a program and April 3 relations followed by a program and April 5. ing, followed by a program and April deserves special mention. The program

Miss Sne Thompson, Mrs. F. E. Howard, Miss Sne Thompson, Mrs. F. B. Caldwell.

Mrs. Callender then asked each member her choice of subjects for study for the coming year. Subjects favored were biography, study of a country, home economics. The president then asked Mrs. Kate Whittemore, president then asked Mrs. Kate Whittemore, president teleboro visited her brother, F. L. Tyler, Saturday, Mr. Tyler is ill with a paralytic shock.

The Woman's alliance next Wednesday will be in charge of Mrs. C. t. Stearns with Mrs. F. Z. Allen and Misses Josephine Gentraled Country of the work of federated will be in charge of Mrs. C. t. Stearns with Mrs. F. Z. Allen and Misses Josephine Gentraled Country of the work of federated will be in charge of Mrs. C. t. Stearns with Mrs. F. Z. Allen and Misses Josephine Gentraled Country of Philadelphia, Mt. Winfred W. Fry of Philadelphia, Mt. Harmon Ms. W. D. Davis W.

Finishing Mill Business Increasing.

A pleasing program of music was rendered between the study numbers.

Miss Elizabeth Solandt gave Mendels garage this week. Several Mt. Hersohn's Hunting Song on the piano. Miss Hazel Holton sang God Made It So. Miss Margaret Howard rendered two vocal solos, Her Rose, and In Pickardy.

Mrs. Susan (Newton) Woodard.

Mrs. Susan (Newton) Woodard.

Mrs. L. R. Smith will go to Boston. Mrs. L. Mrs. Susan (Newton) Woodard.
Mrs. L. R. Smith will go to Boston this week to visit her son and wife, home in East Northfield early Tuesday morning, after a long and painful ill. ness. Besides her husband she leaves a brother, William Newton of Vernon, and three sons. Welks (the leaves as the following the sons with the sons and three sons will attend the annual meeting of the Board of Foreign Missions.

Installed. The extra volume of business is somewhat impeded by the freight embargoes when earload ship, meats are to be made, but on iess than carload lots there is at present excellent facilities for shipping to New York city, either all rail by way of Troy, N. Y., or by the Boston route of York and Philadelphia, this week.

Installed. The extra volume of business is somewhat impeded by the freight embargoes when earload ship,
meats are to be made, but on iess than
carload lots there is at present excellent facilities for shipping to New York city, either all rail by way of Troy, N. Y., or by the Boston route of York and Philadelphia, this week.

ness. Besides her husband she leaves a brother, William Newton of Vernon, and three sons, Wells, Charles and Roy. A daughter, Miss Lucy, died nine years ago.

Mrs. Woodard was born in Vernon, Vt., June 8, 1854, a daughter of Daniel Newton. Thirty years ago she marked in the benefit of the high school in Newton. Thirty years ago she marked in the second of the Board of Foreign Mrs. The second old and young folks' along the for the benefit of the high school in Newton. Thirty years ago she marked in the Board of Foreign Mrs. The second old and young folks' and Philadelphia this week on the business.

The all rail rate at present is 17 cents per hundred for carload lots and 254 cents for less than carload lots. The rate by the Boston route is 14 cents per hundred for carloads and 21 c church and for several years had been an officer of the Woman's Relief corps. She was a woman of many virtues, a thorough Christian and devoted to her home. The family has a large circle of friends who mourn with them in their sorrow.

The Unitarian society will hold an Easter social Saturday evening of this week. There will be an entertainment, after which ice cream and cake will be served. The proceeds will go to the children's mission of Boston.

The Unitarian society will hold an Most of the paper stock used in the White-Washburn mill is made in the Robertson paper mills in this town and while this mill is only one of three operated by the White-Washburn Co. it is said to be the most productive and best paying. Most of the paper stock used in the her home here.

School Teachers for Coming Year.

At the regular meeting of the board of education Monday evening E. L. the Vernon cometery.

The vernon cometery of the will recover.

The wentworth was re-elected principal of the high school and Miss Frances N. Alley and Miss Winifred Potter assistants, the latter with an increase of the wind of the late Mrs. May Leask of New York, filed for probate March of New York of New Yo grammar; Misses Annie White and Ma- here. Upon the deaths of various persons named as legatees the Presbyterian Board of Relief for disabled ministers and the widows and orphans of deceased ministers week Friday they will play the Boys' Mess Mary Coll with $1 a week increase, where the boys of the Methodist church of Greenfield tonight. Next week Friday they will play the Boys' Chest must be described been a valuable wars.

railroad a short distance north of the relatives in town. next meeting of the association will be held the third Friday in May. A nominating committee was appointed to restill maintain his present income? Mr. high prevents the soft clay from run-

> F. W. Tilden has bought a Metz and Mrs. Geo. M. Wright. runabout. William Purcell was at home Sunday

Mrs, Robert Browning spent Monday Holland Perham of Greenfield, Mass.,

spent Sunday in town. George C. Robertson was in Boston several days last week A union meeting was held in the Methodist church Sunday. Guy Morin was at home the first of the week from New York.

Miss Nonie Purcell was at home Sunday from Greenfield, Mass. M. S. Lench's wagon shop. Miss Ida Holton of West Chesterfield is working at Henry Barrett's. William Fitzgerald has been spending a week with his family here. Miss Emily Redmond of Claremont has been visiting friends in town.

Several from this town attended the Akley nuction in Vernon Thursday. Patrick Robbins is employed as histler at Daniel Welch's livery stable. Miss Sarah Bailey visited relatives in Holyoke, Mass., several days recent-

Thomas Sullivan of Windsor, Vt., is visiting here with his sister, Mrs. J. E. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stockwel, is slow-

Miss Violet Lyman is home from the and called on some of her old friends. Frank M. Fuller spent part of last

THIS IS "Mallory" Week

We call it that because we are making a special object of showing, talking and selling only and the more people in this town we can get to look at these wonderful hats and listen to what we will tell about them, and how they are made, the better pleased we will be.

Mallory Hats

We have the correct Spring styles in the newest colors. If you haven't bought your "this season's" hat come in and let us show you why you should wear a "Mallory" Hat, either stiff or soft.

GOODNOW, PEARSON & HUNT

Richard Pollard has gone to Greenfield, Mass., where he has employment in a foundry. Miss Lillian Myers of Florence, Mass., spent Saturday and Sunday at of take possession soon.

A. L. Taylor caught a string of 51 large horned-pout through the ice at Round pond Saturday. The Bruce house on the Plain road was sold to George Wheeler for $65 Mrs. Susie Newton Woodard in North-

W. L. Todd has finished work in Holman's machine shop where he has

New Hydraulic Gate Works Well.

Repair work on the waste gates at two candidates at a special meeting of the Connecticut River Power Co.'s dam.

Golden Rule lodge of Masons Thursday evening.

Charles and Ruth Davis of Greenfield, Mass., are visiting their grand-The banks in the big cut on the mother, Mrs. Charles Davis, and other

Charles Bell, who has been in the Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wright of Greenfield. Mass., have been visitors at the home of the former's parents, Mr

Several business men were called to Boston last week Friday to attend a meeting called by the Connecticut River Power Co. regarding taxation valua tions in this town.

The snow has disappeared rapidly this week and the streets are practically bare, but the hill roads are still covered with a quantity of snow which in ed with a quantity of snow which in where they spent the night and today places where drifts accumulated has a at the Broadway Central hotel. They depth of five feet or more.

The printed reports of the Universalist festival held Feb. 24 and 25 show that the total receipts which include admissions, suppers, dance tickets, and the various booth receipts, were $976. Elmer Aldrich has employment in | 03, while the total expenses $438, leaving a profit of $538,03.

VERNON.

Everett E. Stockwell returned Sat urday from the Melrose hospital. Miss Edith Gray is at home from Windsor, Conn., to spend the spring va-

W. M. Wolfram of Hatfield, Mass. spent Thursday of last week with J. T. Wright.

Miss Inez Akley was a guest of her cousin, Miss Roby Wright, Friday of last week. Marion Stockwell little daughter of ly improving. Miss Eva Graham of a serve this town as petit juror for the April term of court. Mrs. E. H. Akley and Miss Inez with H. E. Akley and family. Mrs. Thomas Ownes, who has been njury to one knee, is better.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Woodard, William E. Newton, Mrs. C. A. Harmon, Miss Edith Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. York city for years.

| Dr. William H. Diapet is a latter with two different time other town offices. He was elected 1865 and served a Miss Mamie Mann will return to her and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Downes will lee the coming season. The program for the Grange meet-convenience used in farm work. The masquerade ball given by Vernon Grange Friday was largely attend. and capable of earning $100 a month ton and another son, George J., died when willing to work. and striking costumes were in idence, particularly worthy of menn being the one worn by Miss Glad Nesbitt, daughter of Mrs. Hattie Jacob Sava and Edward Ferrin, Both Nesbitt. It is an heirloom of the Burrows family and is known to be over 100 years old. A. V. Jillson as a suf-

SCHOOL PARTY GREETS WILSON

Shook Hands with Head of Nation in Trip Early Yesterday Morning.

Letters received from members of of the high school Washington party the party were given the opportunity of shaking hands with President Wilson in the White House. The party was due to leave Washington yesterday morning early, and after four hours in Philadelphia to continue to New York, are due in Brattleboro tonight at 10.41

The party left here Saturday on pick up at Northfield many of the pu- Dec. 17, 1914, when, he charges, she the Brattleboro party was at White River Junction to be attached to the and the other seven years old. through train did not cause any inconenience as the party was able to he 7 o'clock train, which made up at fire Saturday. Brattleboro. It was a steel coach and perished. It is not known how the fire the party of 43 comfortably filled it. originated. the party of 43 comfortably filled it.

When a dealer offers you something just good it is probably something that costs railways, about 20,000 miles, are orthfield, him less than that which you want.

PAUL DRAPER IS SUED

Wife Seeks to Divorce Tenor Singer Last Resident Windham County Mem-From Harvard.

Paul Draper of New York city, Harvard graduate, and tenor singer of reognized ability, who lives at 24 East Fifty seventh street, was sued in the supreme who was the last resident Windham court March 23 for a divorce by Mrs. county legislator of 1865, died Fri-Akley of Brattleboro spent Saturday Muriel G. Draper, member of a prominent day just before noon in his home on onfined to her home some time by an mance that began when Mr. Draper and road. He had been in ill health since jury to one knee, is better.

Miss Marion Richardson and Miss is a son of Dr. William H. Draper, and Mr. Walker was born in Dummerston Miss Marion Richardson and Miss Minnie Cooper of Brattleboro, spent after his graduation from Harvard in 1999 he week-end with Miss Roby Wright Mr. and Mrs. Abbott Stone and Miss Marion Stone spent Sunday with his sisters, Mrs. Lydia Wilson and Mrs.

Sarah Brooks

Alf, Watker was born in Dummerston After the went to Munich and enrolled at the Dummerston, Sept. 25, 1822, a son of Royal academy as a piano student. After Mr. and Mrs. Johas Walker. All of two years he was afflicted with inflamma- his life was spent in Dummerston and two years he was afflicted with inflamma- his life was spent in Dummerston and two years he was afflicted with inflamma- his life was spent in Dummerston and two years he was afflicted with inflamma- his life was spent in Dummerston and two years he was afflicted with inflamma- his life was spent in Dummerston and two years he was afflicted with inflamma- his life was spent in Dummerston and two years he was afflicted with inflamma- his life was spent in Dummerston.

Mrs. Jennie Norris of Londonderry Evening Star Grange of Dummerston has entered suit in county court for and served as such four years. When divorce from Arthur Norris of New a young man he sang for many years York, They were married June 23, in the choir of the Congregational mechanic several ing, Saturday, April 1, is as follows: 1910, in New York, and she charges church of Dummerston. He was a justice that on July 15, 1910, he struck and the charges church of Dummerston. described of the Congregational church of S25,000; home and foreign S2 call, ladies to respond by giving some favorite recibe used in cooking: readinc. Mrs. Amidon: discussion of the choked her violently and severely." eal, men to respond by naming some minor child and that her husband be made to pay for the support of the child. She says that he is 42 years old John, died March 8, 1906, in Dummers of Brattleboro, Make Charges.

TWO DIVORCE PETITIONS.

Papers in two divorce cases were fragette caused much merriment. The filed in county court Tuesday morning, grand march was led by Mrs. Hattie both from the office of O. B. Hughes. Nesbitt as Mammy and H. R. Baker as Jacob Sava of Boston asks divorce from Sarah Sava. They were married in Boston Oct. 21, 1912, and lived to gether until Sept. 1, 1913, when he al-leges she deserted him. He also charges intolerable severity and misconduct. Edward E. Ferrin of Brattlebore White House - Began Homeward seeks to have the matrimonial bonds the parlors of the Brooks House there that tied him to Alice Lombard Ferrin, were present ex-Governor William W

1913. He also charges misconduct. LYNDE SUES FOR DIVORCE

Previously Sued Merton Doolittle on Charge of Alienation of Affections-Wants One Child.

arty left here Saturday on November sucd Merton G. Doolittle on o'clock train instead of the the charge of alienating the affections of "owl" train due to leave at 5.41 Mrs. Lynde, has entered suit for divorce, o'clock. The through train was about Mr. and Mrs. Lynde were married in Hinstwo hours late and orders were redale, N. H., by E. J. Temple, justice of the ceived to take the 7 o'clock train instead. The conductor of the train an Harriett H. Berdge of Halifax. They ticipated a busy time as he was to lived in Guilford and in Brattleboro up to pils of the Northfield schools and at serted him. He alleges in addition to de-Northampton another Washington sertion, misconduct with divers persons to him unknown and asks the care and The fact that the special car for custody of a daughter, five years old.

The farm buildings of Ralph Severy take full possession of the last car of in Goshen were totally destroyed by the Easter recess, Part of the livestock

> Fully 90 per cent of the Argentine aged by European engineers.

GEORGE W. WALKER DEAD.

ber of Legislature of 1865-Formerly Prominent Dummerston Man

George Washington Walker, 93, family in Haverhill, Mass. | what was known as the Eli Sargent The divorce suit marks the end of a ro-place in Brattleboro, on the Putney

A. Fergerson has bought the Dickinson place on Brattleboro street and will take possession soon.

J. C. Dufresne koved his household goods to Fitchburg, Mass., this week where he is employed.

A. L. Taylor caught a string of 51

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Wilson and Mrs. Sarah Brooks.

Mrs. E. H. Akley has invited the Vernon Ladies' circle to meet at her home, 96 High street, Brattleboro, Thursday, April 6, members to carry food as usual for dinner. Note change of day.

A. L. Taylor caught a string of 51

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Woodard, Will-Brattleboro who has been one of the more of the hand, and being the compelled to give up the piano he determined to train his voice. His concerts and recitals have brought him much praise.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper have been living the hand, and being the compelled to give up the piano he determined to train his voice. His concerts and recitals have brought him much praise.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper have been living the hollow' in Dummerston, where he built wagons and sleighs. He was prominent in Dummerston town affairs, serving as selectman several years, at two different times, and he had held of the nerves of the hand, and being the piano he determined to train his voice. His concerts and recitals have brought him much praise.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper have been living the home, 96 High street, Brattleboro, Mr. and Mrs. Draper declined to discuss the case.

Dr. William H. Draper is a native of the more of the nerves of the hand, and being the head held to train his voice. His concerts and recitals have brought him much praise.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper have been living the mined to train his voice. His concerts and recitals have brought him much praise.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper have been living the home, 96 High save brought him much praise.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper have been living the home, 96 High save brought him much praise.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper have been living the home, 96 High

He was elected to the legislature of York city for years.

1865 and served also in that of 1866 and in the special session called March 27, 1897, from Dummerston. There is one sented the town of Stratton. Mr. Walker was the first master of children born to them, only one, Mrs. William R. Randail, survives. One son.

Feb. 2, 1908, in Dubuque, In. The funeral was held Sunday afteroon at 2,30 o'elock at the house, Rev. Delmar E. Trout, pastor of the Universalist church, officiating. E. H. Miler sang three selections. took place in the cemetery in Dummers-ton Center. LELAND & GRAY MEETING.

Business of Session Not Stated, but it is Believed to Have Been in Connection with Principalship.

In a meeting vesterday morning in who is now a resident of California, Stickney of Ludlow, Dr. Henry D. Holsevered. They were married Sept. 14, 1902, at Colbrook, N. H., and he Judge E. L. Hastings and E. B. Batch-sharges, that see the design of the collection o contain the news that the members of charges that she deserted him July 1, elder of Townshend. Information as to the purpose of the meeting was de-ned publication by Mr. Ware, who said there was nothing to be made pub-

All of those present are connected in some capacity with the Leland & Gray seminary of Townshend and it is believed the meeting concerned the prin-cipalship and a recent gift to that institution of the income from a fund left by Miss Harriet A. Fletcher, One of the provisions of this legacy was that the principals of the school should be members of the Baptist church. Principal Guy W. Powers is a member of the Methodist faith, although an attendant of the Baptist church in Town-

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

Mrs. F. I. Swift of Green street went to Boston Tuesday morning to visit several days.

Merle Corbett, who is attending Mount Hermon school, is at his home on South street, West Brattleboro, for Mrs. Mary E. Levy, who has gone to Boston, taking her daughter, Ida, with her, will return today with a new stosk of spring and summer hats.

Those who do more knocking than boosting are apt to hurt themselves most.